Judge Over Sustains the Register in Probating an Irish Will.

MRS. M'CONLEY'S PROTEST NO GOOD.

Mr. Wrass Wants $6,000 From the Citizens' Traction Co. for His Lost Arm.

The well-known "Irish will case" was settled finally yesterday by Judge Over of the Orphans' Court. He handed down an opinion, upholding the action of Register Conner in admitting to probate the will made in Ireland, and dismissed the petition profesting against it.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald, whose will was contested, first made a will in 1876, leaving her estate to her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McConley. In 1885 Mrs. McDonald, in company with her husband, visited Ireland. While there she made a second will, leaving £100 to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Murri: £150 to Mrs. Savage, her niese, and the remainder of her estate to her husband. The second will was filed in the Probate Court in Dublin, Ireland. It could not be probated there as the estate was in Allenot be probated there as the estate was in Allegheny county. A certified copy of the will was then procured and filed with Register Conner. Mrs. McCouley filed a protest, but the Register decided to admit the Irish will to probate. An appeal was taken from his decision and Judge Over decided the matter yesterday. The protest alleged fraud and undue influence and testamentary incapacity; also that only the original will could be probated, and that the Allegheny County Court had no jurisdiction regarding a will made in Ireland.

Judge Over, in his opinion, said that fraud and undue influence had not been proven by the testimony, neither had testamentary incapacity; that decisions of the Supreme Court held that a will lost or destroyed could be proven by testimony, and as thus reproduced not be probated there as the estate was in All proven by testimony, and as thus reproduce ted to probate. As the original will is this case could not be procured, it was virtually lost, and therefore covered by the decisions. He held further that the deceased had been domiciled in Allegheuy county some time, and intended to return here after her visit. In consequence she was domiciled here, and this court had jurisdiction of the probate of the

A GIRL'S PLEA.

She Asks for a Guardian to Protect Her From Cruelty.

Judge Over vesterday heard testimony regarding the petition of Margaret Dyer for the ent of a guardian. The girl, who is about 16 years of age, says she was adopted by James Booker and his wife five years ago. She claimed that they beat and abused her, whipping her almost every day with broomstick clothes line, poker, etc., and made her work from 7 a. M. to bedtime. She asked to be given It was also shown that Agent O'Brien, of the crnelty to the girl about two months ago, and they had pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and Mr. and Mrs. Booker admitted the whipping but denied cruelty, and said it was ordinary chastleement. Judge Over reserved his de-cision in the matter. The girl has no property.

KAUFMANNS'

FOR $1. .: FOR $1.

Don't think that these are a lot of old, countrified excuses for modern headgear, for they represent and are THE VERY LATEST STYLES that have appeared this winter season. They are no cheap wool hats, either, but are guaranteed FINE FUR and each hat is satin-lined and has a fine silk band. The very same identical makes, brands and shapes of hats may be seen in the shelves and show windows of other hatters marked from $2 50 to $3 50. For reasons best known to ourselves we have concluded to slaughter the entire assortment at the uniform price of $1. But there is no time to be lost, if you want to take advantage of this offer. We are sure there'll be a regular rush for these unprecedentedly cheap and fine Derbys, and, unless you come in before the end of

HERE'S ANOTHER STARTLING OFFER:

FOR OUR FORMER 98c MEN'S FRENCH SEAL CAPS.

The reader will remember the sensation that was created when we sold these fine Fur Caps at 98c. "It's hardly possible," people said. Well, we sold thousands of them for $8c, and demonstrated to our patrons that what may be an impossibility for other hatters is an easy task for us. We will close out the balance of these fine Fur Caps FOR 49c NOW. But, we can't impress this warning too strongly: DON'T DELAY, BUT BUY AT ONCE. Bargains like these won't wait long for customers. We will also sell genuine Seal Caps, worth $12, for $6; Seal Caps, worth $6, for $3; Imitation Seal Caps, worth $4, for $2.

SeeOur25cand50cCounters BOYS' HATS and CAPS.

To clean out the balance of our stock of Boys' Hats and Caps we have divided them in two parts, from which we will give choice at 25c and 50c respectively. The 25c counter is loaded down with nobby styles that are worth 40c, 50c, 60c, 70c and 75c, while on the 50c counter you will see none but the finest and most elegant styles of Boy's headgear, that would be cheap at $1, $1 25 and $1 50. To secure these bargains, however, you must call before Saturday night. At these prices the
